

WROTC 2005 Is Here!

Don't Miss Out on the Premier Leadership Program for Officer Teams!

WROTC Comes to the City of Roses

The sweet smell of success and roses will fill the air as DECA and Delta Epsilon Chi local, state/provincial and national officers ascend on the City of Roses in Portland, Oregon for the 4th Annual Western Region Officer Training Camp (WROTC)!

Held at Portland State University August 8-10, WROTC is the MUST leadership program of the summer for any DECA/DEX officer who is serious about service and success! If you want to maximize achievement during your term of service—then you'll want to be in Portland with the world's top DECA/DEX officers!

Leadership opportunities will be overflowing at WROTC 2005 including:

- Three new Officer Leadership Tracks designed especially for DECA/DEX state and local officers
- Dining etiquette cruise aboard the Portland Spirit on the Willamette River
- Hands on adventure and challenge training that will have you laughing, cheering, and on your feet!
- Networking with state and provincial officers from the Western Region and across the world!
- Work closely with DECA/DEX national officers, staff, and leaders from around the world!
- Receive exclusive officer updates on hot new DECA/DEX programs and events
- Up close and personal preview of the 2005 Western Region Leadership Conference
- State and Local Advisor Town Hall and Swap Shop
- Training led by dynamic business leaders and DECA's officer training coaches
- Opportunities to explore one of the grandest cities of the west—Portland!
